More Programs

The programs of Hummelen Educatief have originally been developed for dutch children. The objective was to develop programs that could be easily operated, even by little children resulting in completely mouse-driven programs. The setting of the preferences can be done by the parents/fosterers.

Programs that have been developed are (amongst others):

traffic signs with Professor Egg; multiple choice with 93 traffic signs reading with Professor Egg; multiple choice picture - (simple) word

reading; find the (simple) word and the corresponding picture

For the English speaking children the following programs have been developed:

order code price

CalcuMemory

PsL #14492 $19.95 (incl. S&H)

State Flags with Professor Egg

PsL #14493 $19.95 (incl. S&H)

The first English program tests addition, subtraction, multiplication and division in a memory game like manner. The difficulty level can be set by the player/supervisor.

The second English program tests the knowledge of the flags of the states of the United States of America in a multiple choice manner.

To order a personalized copy of the latest version of a program, check out the registration information.

Prices are valid until (at least) 31 December 1998.
