

The Marketing Strategy

The Marketing Strategy indicates how you plan to market your restaurant, how many meals you expect to sell and at what price. These elements are known as the four P's: Product, Price, Promotion And Place. This section should emphasize the reasons why you adopted this strategy based on your market analysis. The Marketing Strategy should explain your marketing objectives, target markets, sales method, promotion strategy, and the restaurant positioning and pricing policy.