

The Restaurant

The Restaurant chapter presents your restaurant, cuisine and services. It is well known that a winning restaurant concept is one that satisfies the needs of the market. To be a real winner, your restaurant should offer the best combination of food and atmosphere found anywhere in the marketplace. This section provides a complete description of your restaurant, the competitive analysis and other key factors that affect your marketing plan.