

Marketing Budget Summary

The marketing budget indicates the amount of money you intend to allocate to salaries, advertising, public relations, travel, exhibitions, sales promotion and special events. Present your marketing budget by periods, main activities and as a percentage of the sales forecast.