

The Marketing Strategy

The Marketing Strategy indicates how you plan to market your service, how much business you expect to generate and at what price. The section should emphasize the reasons you adopted this strategy based on your market analysis.

The Marketing Strategy consists of the marketing objective, the target markets, the sales method, the promotion strategy, and the positioning and pricing policy of your service.