

General Description

Write a concise general description of your service, merchandise and marketing concept. It should include the location, size of your facility, hours and method of operation. It should also answer the questions "What is the market demand for this type of service? What are its unique advantages? How does your service satisfy the needs of the market?"