

Competitive Analysis

List the major existing or anticipated competitor services in the market for your type of service. Compare the advantages and disadvantages of your service with theirs in terms of location, size, service, price, quality, convenience and method of operation. The results of the competitive analysis should be presented in table form.