

General Description

Exotic Travels specializes mainly in travels to exotic places in the world. Tourists in groups or as individuals purchase travel services including flight tickets, hotel reservations, guided tours and almost every type of assistance required for adventurous and pleasant trips to places like Africa, Far East, Pacific Islands and more. The agency staff is experienced in travels to these exotic places. Each employee specializes in specific parts of the world and has personal travelling experience to those places. We give our customers the best guidance based on real and cumulative experience of our own people.

The agency also sells travel services to businessmen and tourists travelling to more custom places such as Europe and Japan.

The agency is located in a well equipped 1200 sqf. offices in 456, 3rd Avenue, Manhattan, New York. Working hours are 9am to 7pm, Monday to Friday, closed only on holidays.