

Text Objects

Use the Text tool in the Tool Palette to create text objects. These consist of editable text; they are not the same as TextArt images that you import from the Image Display Window.

To create a text object, click where you want your text to start and begin typing. Use normal NeXT text editing techniques to enter and edit your text; use the Font Panel or the Font menu to alter the text's characteristics.

TextArt: The Manual:

Creating Text Objects

p. 47