Shadow Definition

You can control the angle and length of the shadow by moving the light source in the Shadow controller, the white rectangle in the Shadow image control panel. Click anywhere in the Shadow controller; the light source will follow your cursor. The arrow shows you the direction and relative length of the shadow.   The horizontal line represents the base line of your text, so you move the light source relative to the base line.

TextArt: The Manual:

Shadow option   p. 33