Cover story

62 Personal Digital Assistants

You might decide to make that worn Filofax a thing of the past by replacing it with your very own Personal Digital Assistant (PDA). In this issue we round up and compare the latest models which offer everything from basic storage of telephone numbers to pocket-sized PC power.

Features

84 Christmas goodies

If you're struggling to finish your Christmas shopping, we've come up with some ideas, from mouse mats and Game Boys to Camcorders and OverDrive processors.

88 DTP software

These days anyone with a PC can enter the desktop publishing world and create professional-looking documents. We test both high-end and budget packages for Windows.

108 Pentium 200s

200MHz Pentium PCs are currently top of the line, but high power doesn't necessarily mean a high price. We look at 10 of the fastest machines you can buy for under £2,000.

128 Keyboards

Vital yet often overlooked, a good keyboard can make all the difference when using your PC. We give our verdict on a dozen of the latest models.
