

Welcome to dMail for Windows installation program.

You must set following fields in this dialog:

DOMAIN - full INTERNET address of your computer (not to local user)
for example:

full user address is - root@anycomp.demos.su

domain is - anycomp.demos.su

NodeName - UUCP name of your site, usually same as part of domain name.
for our example: anycomp

MailServer - UUCP name of your default host, usually same as part of domain name.

for our example: demos

NewsServer - is the name of your news server computer
this name will sets automatically as part of header for your messages.
for example: news@demos.su

Time Zone - for correct local time.
Following timezones is allowed PDD, MSK, ...

Spool Dir - is a name of directory to accumulate outcoming messages and temporary storing incoming letters.

User Mailname - name of postmaster. This is a part of full INTERNET address before char '@'.
for our example: root

User realname - human first&last name for postmaster

User homedir - directory for user's messages folders

Organization - organization name of user

