The Save Panel

The Save Panel is provided by the Application Kit for users to name the file to be saved.   You can add functionality to the Save Panel with an accessory view.   The Save panel should come up showing the directory of the document to be saved (i.e., the one displayed in the main window).