

System Restore Point Options:

No system restore point options are available. This task is a straight forward, single step automation which takes a comprehensive snap shot of your current system configuration and stores it in the System Restore Point database.