CAUTION

Before running Family Program Manager™, please refer to your users manual which describes how to install and configure this software program. This file is called fpmdoc.txt and can be opened with the Write Editor under accessories or any other editor of your choice capable of reading text files. (The file will be located in the directory where Family Program Manager™ was installed.)

The buyme.exe file can be run from DOS or a Windows DOS box.