Deleting Amy Reiley's Pocket Vineyard

To uninstall, delete the application from your device using the "Applications manager".

Launching Amy Reiley's Pocket Vineyard

To launch Amy Reiley's Pocket Vineyard on your PalmOS device, tap the icon labeled PocketVine.

My Tasting Notes section

The My Tasting Notes section of Amy Reiley's Pocket Vineyard is very similar in organization to the built-in Address Book application on PalmOS ® devices. Chances are, if you've used the Address Book, you'll have no problems quickly getting used to the My Tasting Notes section of the program.

Creating Records

1. Tap New.
2. Enter the text in each field you wish to enter text into. You can switch fields by tapping the field you wish to enter data into.
3. When finished, tap Done.

Deleting Records

1. Select the record you want to delete.
2. Tap the Menu icon in the bottom left portion of the silkscreen Graffiti ® writing area.
3. Select the Record drop-down menu and choose Delete Tasting from the list.
4. Select OK when the confirmation box appears.

Other Deleting Options
You can also delete a record by pulling up the record and tapping on the Details button. In the Details dialog box of the application, tap Delete, and then tap OK.

Categorizing Tasting Notes

When you create a record, Amy Reiley's Pocket Vineyard automatically places it in the category that is currently displayed. If the category displayed is All, Amy Reiley's Pocket Vineyard assigns the record to the Unfiled category. You can change the category at any time.

To move a Tasting Note into a category:

1. Select the Tasting Note you want to categorize.

2. Tap Edit.
3. Tap Details.
4. Tap the Category pick list to display the list of available categories.
5. Select the desired category for the Tasting Note.
6. Tap OK.

2. Tap the Menu icon.
3. Tap Record, then tap Select Favorite.
4. Tap Yes.

Glossary section
To see the definition of a selected term, choose that term from the popup menu.

You can also skip through the list by writing a letter in the Quick Lookup section.

To change the font size, select one of the Font boxes at the bottom of the screen (these boxes are marked with different sized "A"s).

Vintage Chart section
To find the quality of a vintage year, first choose a country from the first listing to appear. Then, you may be prompted to choose a region, followed by a type, and, finally, a vintage year. After choosing a vintage year, the verdict will appear below. If the vintage was especially noteworthy, comments will appear below the verdict.

Food Pairing section
In the Food Pairing section, you need to choose a category of dishes from the first popup menu, and then choose a dish from the second popup menu. The suggested wines will display below.
