CanClose Method (Application Object)

The CanClose method indicates whether or not the Application Object can be destroyed. This method will return FALSE as long as there are valid Report objects in existence. The Application object can only be destroyed if no instances of the Report Object.

Syntax

```
object.CanClose
```

Returns

- TRUE - if the Engine can be closed.
- FALSE - if the Engine is busy.