Why should you register?

By registering your Aldus product, you receive:

- 90 days of free telephone technical assistance, beginning with your first call. A staff of Aldus software specialists will help you solve any problems you may encounter as you learn to use the software.
- A free year's subscription to Aldus Magazine, which includes up-to-date product and industry information, hardware and software reviews, handy design tips, and hands-on instructions from industry experts.
- Advance information about new Aldus product releases, service programs, and updates and new releases of your Aldus product (updates are minor revisions between major new releases).
- A trial subscription offer to the CompuServe information network, where you have access to the Aldus Forum, a library of technical information on all Aldus products.
- Free replacements for defective disks or manuals during our 90-day product warranty period. (Before returning any materials, please contact an Aldus Customer Relations representative at 206-628-2320 for an authorization number.)

You can purchase additional support services for your registered product.
For information, see the Aldus Customer First™ brochure in your product package.
