

If you need Help when you run the Setup program, click , and then click on a setting or button.

Type your full name.

Type the name of your company or organization.

Change the name or organization.

Type the CD-ROM Key number provided with the product.

Shows the product identification number provided with the product. The product identification number is also located on the Certificate of Authenticity.

Installs the program in a location other than the folder shown under Folder.

To install the program in a different location, click a folder in the Folders box.

To create a new folder, click the location you want in the Folders and Drives boxes, and then type the new folder name at the end of the path in the Path box.

To install the program in a different location, click the folder in the Folders box.

To install the program on a different drive, click the drive in the Drives box.

To install only those files needed to run the program from the CD-ROM or from the network, click Run From CD-ROM or Run From Network.

To install all items in the Options box, click Select All.

To remove an item from the list of items you want to install, clear the check box next to the name of the item in the Options box.

To install only items you select for an individual item, select the item you want to change install options for in the Options box, and then click Change Options.

To see additional options for the item selected in the Options box, click Change Option. Change Option is unavailable if the item has no additional options to select.

To install the items selected in the Options box in a different location, click Change Folder. Change Folder is available only for items that can be installed in another location.

To create a new program group for the program, type a name in the Program Group box.

To show the program icon in an existing program group, click the group.

To show the amount of space required to install the options you selected under Required, click a drive in the Drive box. The number under Available is the amount of space available on the drive. If there is not enough space available, the number under Needed is the amount of additional space needed to continue the installation.

To create enough disk space to install the program, reduce the number of options you want to install, or make more space available in the location where you want to install the program. To change the program options you want to install, click Change Options.

Installs the program with the selected options.

To install files shared with other programs in a different location, click Change Folder.

Shows the location of program files shared with other users on a network.

To use the existing server and path, click Continue.

To connect network users to shared files at a different location, type the new server and path in the Server and Path boxes, and then click Continue.

Locates shared files by using the server name.

Locates shared files by using the drive letter.

To select a drive letter where shared files will be located, click the letter in the Drive box.

Allows users to select whether shared files are located by server name or by drive letter.

Installs and uses shared files on a server.

Installs shared files on a computer hard disk.

Allows users to select whether to store shared files on a server or on their computer hard disks.

Installs the program so that it can be run from a server.

Uses shared files from a server. This option will save space on the computer hard disk but will decrease performance speed.

Uses shared files from your computer hard disk. This option increases performance speed but uses more space on your computer hard disk.

To install all items in the Options box, click Select All.

To install or remove an option, select or clear the check box next to the name of the item.

If you cannot select an item in the Options box because it is unavailable, the item was previously installed by another program. You cannot reinstall or remove the item.

No Help topic is associated with this area. Click  again, and then click on a setting or button.

Installs all items in the Options box.

Connect to or switch to the network drive where you want to install the program.

Shows the amount of space needed to install this program and the amount of space available. The required amount of space does not include files that may be removed or replaced during installation.

Installs all the files most commonly used to run Microsoft Project 98. Typical installation includes Microsoft Project program files. Typical installation does not include online Help for Visual Basic for Applications.

To view or install items that are not included in Typical installation, click Custom. The items selected by default for Custom installation are installed automatically with Typical installation.

To manually select the files you want to install, select the check box next to the name of the item in the Options box, and then click Change Options.

To install all the files for all Office programs, click Select All.

The items selected by default for Custom installation are those installed automatically with Typical installation.

