- 3.1 As the Licensee you hereby undertake the following obligations:
- (a) to not print, copy, reproduce, translate, adapt, vary, alter, change, reverse engineer, decompile or modify the Software by any means or in any other form, other than to

- (i) to not engage in any acts which infringe PC Tools' intellectual property rights in the Software.

3.2 You acknowledge that the Licence granted by Clause 1 does not make you the owner of the Software nor does it cause any transfer or assignment of any copyright or any other intellectual or industrial property rights subsisting in the Software to you.

3.3 You acknowledge that the Software will seek to remove codes such as viruses, spyware, adware and malware. In some circumstances removal of that code may result in you breaching a licence to use the host software which installed that code or certain host programs to cease operating. You agree to consult the terms of any licence agreement for the host program before authorising the removal of any viruses, spyware, adware or malware associated with that program.

4. Warranty

4.1 You hereby acknowledge that the Software may not be uninterrupted and cannot be guaranteed error free and further acknowledge that the existence of any such errors shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement by PC Tools. In particular, PC Tools does not guarantee that the Software will detect and/or remove all known viruses, spyware, adware, malware, Trojans, keyloggers and trackware, or locate all browser infections and tracking cookies on your computer, nor that the Software will not occasionally erroneously report a virus in a file or system not infected by that virus. If the Software is a beta version, you acknowledge and agree that (i) the Software may contain errors and defects and may not function as intended or in accordance with its specifications; and (ii) you assume all risk in using the Software and agree to take due care in the installation, execution and testing of the Software on your computer system.

4.3 In the event that any terms, conditions, representations or warranties are implied by statute, common law or equity ("Prescribed Terms") into this Agreement which cannot be lawfully excluded, the Prescribed Terms will apply to this Agreement, save that the liability of PC Tools for breach of any Prescribed Terms will be limited, to the extent permitted by law, at the option of PC Tools, to any one or more of the following:

- (b) the repair of the Software;
- (c) the payment of the cost of replacing the Software or of acquiring equivalent Software;

- (b) you will not under any circumstances have any cause of action against, or right to claim or recover from, PC Tools for or in respect of any loss, damage or injury (including without limitation any loss of profit, indirect or consequential loss, damage or injury) arising from the supply or use of the Software or any breach of these terms; and
- (c) subject to paragraph (b) above, the maximum liability of PC Tools to you in respect of any breach of this Agreement or otherwise in respect of your use of the Software will be the amount you have paid PC Tools for the Software and if you have not paid PC Tools any amount for the Software, will be the amount of USD $1 (one dollar).

5. Copyright and Trade Marks

- 5.1 You acknowledge that the Software and all related products (including but not limited to computer manuals and computer literature) ("Products") are the subject of copyright. You therefore shall not, during or any time after the expiry or termination of this Agreement, permit any act which infringes that copyright and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you specifically acknowledge that you may not copy the Software or Products except as otherwise expressly authorised by this Agreement.
- 5.2 You shall not during or at any time after the expiry or termination of this Agreement permit any act which infringes the trade marks used in connection with the Software.
- 5.3 You shall indemnify PC Tools fully against all liabilities, costs and expenses which PC Tools may incur to a third party as a result of your breach of this Clause 5.

6. Collection of Information

- 6.1 The Software is designed to block malicious behaviours on your computer. If a potentially malicious behaviour is detected, the Software will prompt an action to "Allow" or "Quarantine" the process in question. If you have the Community Protection option in the Software set to "on" then the information regarding this event is collected and transmitted to PC Tools. This information may include the response to the alert, the IP address of your computer, a copy of the file that triggered the alert and other information in relation to such file. This data is transmitted solely for research and analysis purposes to aid in determining whether a process is malicious in nature and will not include any personal data.
- 6.2 We will collect information about any browser plug-ins installed on your computer the first time that the Software is run if you have the Community Protection option in the Software set to "on". Data collected may also include information about the PC Tools and other security software on your computer. This information will not include any personal data and is only collected to aid in decreasing false positives and to report back to you about the performance of the security products used within the ThreatFire Community. Such reporting will be on an aggregated basis and will not include any personal data.
- 6.3 Sample malware files collected by PC Tools may be shared with other security providers for the sole purpose of creating signatures to protect against further spread of the specific threats.
- 6.4 All information and file samples are held completely confidential and are not tracked back to individual users.
- 6.5 Each installation of the Software is also associated with a unique anonymous identifier that does not include any personal data and is used solely to help track the total number of active users.

7. Term of Licence

use of the Software (whichever is sooner) and may be terminated in the following circumstances:

- (a) if you are in breach of any term of this Agreement;
- (b) if you, being a corporation, become the subject of insolvency proceedings or have a liquidator, receiver or examiner appointed to you or become unable to pay your debts;

8. Export Restrictions

8.1 PC Tools, its employees and its agents are subject to U.S. export control laws that prohibit or restrict (i) transactions with certain parties, and (ii) the type and level of technologies and services that may be exported. You agree to comply fully with all laws and regulations of the United States and other countries (“Export Laws”) to assure that neither the Software, nor any direct products thereof are (1) exported, directly or indirectly, in violation of Export Laws, or (2) are used for any purpose prohibited by Export Laws, including, without limitation, nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons proliferation.

8.2 None of the Software or underlying information or technology may be downloaded or otherwise exported or re-exported (i) into (or to a national or resident of) Cuba, North Korea, Iran, Sudan, Syria or any other country to which the U.S. has embargoed goods; or (ii) to anyone on the U.S. Treasury Department's List of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Commerce Department's Denied Persons List, Unverified List, Entity List, Nonproliferation Sanctions or General Orders. By downloading or using the Software, you are agreeing to the foregoing and you are representing and warranting that you are not located in, under the control of, or a national or resident of any such country or on any such list, and that you acknowledge you are responsible to obtain any necessary U.S. government authorization to ensure compliance with U.S. law.

9. Assignment

The benefit of this Agreement shall not be dealt with in any way by you (whether by assignment, sub-licensing or otherwise) without PC Tools' written consent and this Agreement shall be binding on your successors and assigns.

10. Waiver

Failure or neglect by either party to enforce at any time any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed or deemed to be a waiver of that party's rights under this Agreement.

11. Amending these terms

PC Tools may amend any of the terms of this Agreement by (a) providing written notice to you of such amendments; and/or (b) displaying such amendments or an amended copy of this Agreement to you during your installation and/or execution of the Software.
