

Thank you for submitting your application for the position of [[Available position]]. We will be accepting applications for that position until [[Résumé submission deadline]]. Interviews will be scheduled the following week.

In the event we do not select you for an interview for this position, we will keep your application on file for [[How long résumé will be kept on file]]. If any other positions become available for which you are qualified, you will be notified.