Introduction

MediaBlaze Professional 2.5 is the first Windows95 "Media-Suite" with a slick Windows 95 interface.

It is the ideal solution to working with data on the Internet and other sources!

With all of the information passing through the web every day, don't you want to be able to get at it quickly and easily? This is one of the many things MediaBlaze Professional is all about.

MediaBlaze Professional was built to be easy to use by everyone. Although there are some specialized programs exist that can (more difficulty) view and play the same formats that MediaBlaze Professional can, it would cost far more to register each program of each type and would be far harder to use.

Because all of the program "modules" that MediaBlaze Professional uses in a single TRUE 32-BIT multitasking nature instead of more than one program feeding off of your system's valuable resources all at once, MediaBlaze Professional is a far more Windows friendly program..

Please see FEATURES for more information on the functions of MediaBlaze Professional.
