PART 1

Section 1

Those who work for peace have got to support one another. We know that when leaders stand up for peace, they place their fortunes on the line and sometimes their very lives on the line, as we learned so recently in the tragic murder of the brave Prime Minister of Israel. For just as peace has its pioneers, peace will always have its rivals. Even when children stand up and say what these children said today, there will always be people who deep down inside will never be able to give up the past.

Translation

Ti, kdo pracují pro mír, se musí vzájemně podporovat. Víme, že když se vedoucí představitelé postaví za mír, riskují své osudy a někdy riskují i samotné své životy. Jak jsme zjistili tak nedávno při tragické vraždě statečného izraelského premiéra. Protože stejně jako má mír své průkopníky, mít bude vždy mít i své

A. Note down the following structure:

I have had the privilege of meeting with and closely listening to both nationalists and unionists.

Two verbs with different prepositions are used for the same object.

Now use the following verbs to make similar structures. Fill them in the given sentences.

1. to be afraid of sth., to be interested in sth.

He is both and snakes.

2. to be ashamed of sth., to be angry about sth.

Juliet was both and her husband's behaviour.

3. to suffer from sth., to be cured of sth.

My grandmother and hepatitis in the year 1995.

Mini-Dialogue Strategies

1. Be careful of vocabulary. Words with more than one meaning will be tested in Section One of the TOEFL. Listen for idioms. See checkpoints L√1 through L√3 for practice.
2. Be careful of sounds. Look for sound-alikes in answer choices. Do not be tricked by words and expressions that sound alike but which have different meanings. See checkpoints L√4 through L√6 for practice.
3. Listen carefully to the second speaker. Listen for strong emotions, such as surprise, anger, or disappointment. Listen for strong emphasis on certain words or phrases. Listen for strong emphasis on certain words or phrases. Listen for strong emphasis on certain words or phrases.
4. Be careful of tricky spoken structures such as contractions, negatives, causative verbs, conditions, tag questions, modals, passives, and relationship signals. See L√7 through L√10 for practice.
5. Listen carefully to the second speaker. The second speaker always gives important information. The

Written Expression Questions

The Written Expression questions in Section Two of the TOEFL measure your understanding of the grammar of written English. There are 25 sentences in this part of the test. Each sentence has four underlined segments. You must choose the one incorrect segment.

MODEL

Mining is the most importantest industry in this state.

A B C D

What is wrong with this sentence?

Answer: The form of the adjective

Explanation

In this question, the correct formation of superlative adjectives is being tested. Importantest is not a word in English. Answer (B) is the correct answer to the question because importantest is incorrect.

Correction: important

MODEL

Tomorrow we went to the store to buy some new furniture.
