Mini-Dialogue Strategies

1. Be careful of vocabulary. Words with more than one meaning will be tested in Section One of the TOEFL. Listen for idioms. See checkpoints L√1 through L√3 for practice.
2. Be careful of sounds. Look for sound-alikes in answer choices. Do not be tricked by words and expressions that sound alike but which have different meanings. See checkpoints L√4 through L√6 for practice.
3. Listen carefully to the first speaker. The first speaker often gives important information. Listen for strong emotions and strong opinions. See checkpoints L√7 through L√10 for practice.
4. Be careful of tricky spoken structures such as contractions, negatives, causative verbs, conditions, tag questions, modals, passives, and relationship signals. See L√7 through L√10 for practice.
5. Listen carefully to the second speaker. The second speaker always gives important information. The
