

Activating a Movie

To activate a movie you only need to click on it. If it is partially behind another movie, it will automatically come to the front most layer. If the controller is open, it will display the currently active movies name and frame count. An active movie may then be played by using the menu commands, key board commands or the movie Controller. (For more about the controller, see Movie Controller.)