

The Battle Report screen provides results on all the battles you fought this turn. The area under the map displays the location of the battle, the forces of the winner and the loser, and lets you know which units, if any, were killed.

Green map icons represent a victory, while red means defeat. The flashing icon is the location of the currently displayed battle.