

As you give orders to your industry, traders, diplomats, civilian workers, and military, the rulers of other empires do the same. Your orders can be canceled at any time prior to clicking the End Turn button at the bottom of the toolbar on the map screen. When you click this button and the turn ends, the orders of all Great Powers are carried out simultaneously.