Ninja Girl Icons
author: Dave Brasgalla

Introduction:

Just when you thought it was safe to go to sleep in your 16th-century Japanese castle... Ninja Girl bursts from the shadows in a flurry of deadly motion, then fades back into the dark, like blood soaking into tatami...

I did these just for kicks, and also in answer to the charge of "too many 'guy' sets at the 'Factory'" from certain women icon artists and users. They are definitely inspired by "Tenchu: Stealth Assassins", the new feudal-era Japan ninja sim, but they are not specifically derived from that game. They are my own creations! They are all in 256 colors because, while 32-bit icons are definitely cool, I really still enjoy the challenge that the limited palette poses. I hope you like them - they are just supposed to be playful and fun! And I hope you like "Ninja Girl" - she'll likely be back!

Enjoy,
Dave

On replacing the trash icon:

Many people ask us how to go about replacing their Mac's trash icon with a custom one. There are several ways to go about replacing the trash icon, but we don't recommend messing around with system resources unless you are fairly versed with ResEdit. If you're not sure you want to mess with the guts of your Mac's system files then may we recommend a program called Zonkers! from Nova Development. Zonkers provides users with a safe, fast and easy way to customize ALL system level icons with the click of a mouse (unless you're running Mac OS 8). If you'd like to learn more about Zonkers! for the Mac and all the neat things it can do then head for: <<http://www.novadevcorp.com>>
