

The sums of the color percentages for Cyan, Magenta, Yellow and Black exceed 300%. As an example, it is far better to define Black as 100% K and leave CMY as 0%, otherwise you would end up using too much ink or print with a "muddy" brown.