

New Challenge

Right, for those of you out there who just can't hold it in any more, here's how you can let it all hang out and write for 1984 online.

1984, if you have not already noticed, is a mixed bag of Mac dedicated folk who come from a variety of careers, related interests and hobbies, but all participate in the life of the Mac community to the fullest.

Anyone who enjoys this productive and mind enhancing platform can be a part of 1984.

Writing it with style

Writing for us is easy. All you have to do is tell us about your Mac orientated experiences. Although we have our regular in-house columnist's we'll always have room for more! Our site expansion is on going throughout 1999.

Guest writers are always most welcome to ensure our variety remains alive and kicking.

Your work can cover any subject you wish so long as it is related to the Apple Macintosh and its competitors. Reviews on software, hardware and books are most welcome. Each article has its own merits, so from reading this month's issue you'll get a feel for the different subject matter we cover.

A good comparison would be the equivalent of about 1-2 sides of A4 text maximum [although longer at a push].

Our readership

1984 readers are as varied as our writers. From the first time user to experienced Mac folk, they will all browse our work from time to time.

We are on the cover CD's of both MacWorld UK and MacFormat magazines plus many internet posting announce our ezine release date each month.

Always keep in mind that not everyone will understand certain terminology, so try to explain wherever possible a complicated topic.

So there you go. Simple guidelines.

If you wish to contact me further then please do, and I look forward to welcoming you on board.
