

Quarters®

Disclaimer

Legal Stuff (our attorney said that he would quit if we didn't include what he had to say -- however, we gave it considerable thought!)

Quarters is only meant as a game. While it could be used to make money in bar settings (if one is brave enough). It is not intended to promote gambling or to give anyone an unfair advantage in gaming -- which it does!

Quarters is intended as a polite game to be played between friends and only requires 12 coins to play. If you have three dollars in quarters, then you can play this game anywhere and anytime.
