

CatsCradle ©2000 Julian Spencer

CatsCradle is designed for language translators - a dedicated web site translation environment, featuring a fast, powerful text extraction and integration engine. With features such as instant preview, realtime browser view and auto-response glossary, translating web pages into other languages is suddenly a lot easier.

This software may be freely distributed.
Please read the license agreement.