

How to Use the Game Club

Select a game title

At the top left you see a column of buttons, each of which has the name of one of 2AM's games. By clicking one of these buttons, you get the information on that title to the center and right of the upper screen.

Select a game

At the top center you see the title of the game you have selected. The number of button columns below this title corresponds to the number of games that can be played.

Clicking "Join" enables you to join that game.

Clicking "Status" enables you to see what the status of that game is and who is playing.

View the Status of the Game

At the top right you can see all the players in the game whose status you have clicked on.

View who is at the Game Club

At the bottom right is list of all visitors at the Game Club. Above this list there is a line asking if you want an audio cue. If this line is checked, and if your music button (in the toolbar) is on, you will hear an announcement any time a player joins the Game Club.

Chat

At the bottom right is the chat box which allows you to talk to any or all the other people at the Game Club.
